

Yard Waste Site

In 2005, the City of Corning opened a yard waste site on Route 414. The site is used to compost brush, grass and leaves collected throughout the city. The site is open to the public in the spring and the fall to drop off yard waste. The waste is then ground into mulch. The mulch is used on various City-owned properties and parks. It is also available to residents for free.